Opening Prayer

*Call to Worship

Based on "Hope," by Victoria Safford

We are called to plant ourselves at the gates of Hope — not the prudent gates of Optimism, which are somewhat narrower;
nor the stalwart, boring gates of Common Sense;
nor the strident gates of Self-Righteousness;
nor the cheerful, flimsy garden gate of "Everything is gonna be all right."

But a different, sometimes lonely place, the place of truth-telling, about our own soul first of all and its condition, the place of resistance and defiance, the piece of ground from which we see the world both as it is and as it could be, as it will be;
the place from which we glimpse not only struggle, but joy in the struggle.

And we stand here, beckoning and calling,
telling others what we see:
the gates of Hope and the faithfulness of God.

Check any of these out using the normal procedure.

The Trinity knot is an ancient symbol representing the eternal, unbroken presence and interconnectedness of the triune God. Like a circle, there is no beginning and no end. Melissa Hofstetter, grief counselor, explained that in Hebrew the word for "hope" (Tikvah) is the same word used for "rope" or "cord" - that which holds together and brings hope. This symbol of the rope in the shape of a Trinity knot will be used in our conversations with Melissa, as God is the One in whom we find Hope. Zoom meetings with Melissa Hofstetter this week: Leadership groups

Advent devotionals: The Worship Commission is offering both an adult and a children's devotional for the Advent season which begins on November 27. If you are interested in a copy of one and/or both, please contact the church office by today.

You are invited to donate warm men's gloves for distribution by the youth on Sandwich Saturday, December 3. There is a collection box in the fellowship hall.

A big thank you to all of our mowers this past season: Jerold Heide, Randy Pinkerton, Travis Cox, Randy Graber, Jim Blakely, Grant Bellar, and Scott Luty.
